

What's available through the Young People and the Arts Grants Program in 2010?

Closing date: 26 February 2010, for activity starting after 1 July 2010

Development and Marketing & Distribution categories

Refer to the Arts Grants Handbook 2010 for information on the range of activities covered by these categories.

$30,000 Young People and the Arts International Scholarship

One $30,000 Young People and the Arts International Scholarship is being offered to an artist or arts worker aged 29 years and under to pursue specialist training at an accredited overseas institution.

Closing date: 24 September 2010, for activity starting after 1 January 2011

Development and Marketing & Distribution categories

Refer to the Arts Grants Handbook 2010 for information on the range of activities covered by these categories.

3 x $15,000 Young People and the Arts Fellowships

Up to three $15,000 Young People and the Arts Fellowships will be awarded to outstanding artists and arts workers aged 26 years and under to develop their practice through an intensive period of development.

Annual Program Applications (by invitation only)

Please speak to a DCA project officer if you would like to know more.

Closing date: At least six weeks prior to the start date (assessed monthly)

Young People and the Arts Quick Response Fund: up to $5,000

Young People and the Arts Quick Response Fund allows young artists, and community groups and local councils employing professional artists to work with young people, to respond to out-of-round opportunities where the time frame does not fit within the two major funding rounds. Applications must be received a minimum of six weeks prior to the project start date.

Artflight: up to $5,000

Artflight supports artists and arts workers to attend events at short notice that have strategic significance. Capped at $5,000 it is designed to provide a contribution towards the costs of travel and freight only. Applications must be received a minimum of six weeks prior to the departure date.

For further information, contact a Young People and the Arts Project Officer at youngpeople@dca.wa.gov.au.

Additional opportunities offered by DCA can be found through other funding programs at www.dca.wa.gov.au

Sign up to receive grants information, news and events at www.dca.wa.gov.au/login

